

Legal Analytics® for Plaintiff Lawyers

Lex Machina's award-winning Legal Analytics platform is used by outside counsel and in-house attorneys to predict the behavior of courts, judges, lawyers, law firms, and parties.

Well over half of Am Law100 firms and many of the largest corporations in the world use Legal Analytics to augment traditional legal decision making with previously unavailable strategic insights that give them a winning edge.

Find out how Legal Analytics can help plaintiff lawyers level the playing field and allow you to craft winning litigation strategies.

The Winning Edge

Would you like to have access to the same powerful tools that Am Law 100 lawyers use to litigate their cases? Lex Machina provides data-driven insights and trends in federal case timing, resolutions, damages, remedies, and findings, used by successful big law litigators to predict the outcomes of their legal strategies.

Motion Metrics Report

Showing metrics for 228 orders issued by District Judge James S. Moody Jr. (JSM)

Lex Machina helps you answer questions such as:

- § What are my chances to survive Summary Judgment before Judge Moody in the Middle District of Florida?
- § How often, and in which cases, has a finding of breach of warranty been made in the Eastern District of Michigan?
- § Does Target Corporation tend to settle before reaching Summary Judgment or do they fight all the way?
- § How many times have damages for lost wages been awarded in a federal employment case? What were the specific amounts?
- § How long does it take to get an MDL master case certified for Product Liability Cases in the Northern District of California?

Understand Judges and Venues

Gain key insights about your judge or venue before you take on a new case. Compare tendencies and grant rates of rulings and opinions. See how long it will take for your case to reach key milestones, such as time to summary judgment, time to class certification, time to trial, or time to termination. Analyze the findings and damages awarded in cases similar to yours.

Analyze Law Firms and Lawyers

Learn more about your opposing law firm and the legal team you are up against. Analyze their past performance before your judge. Identify their strengths and weaknesses and understand their motion strategy. Drill through to the top motions they filed successfully and uncover those that failed.

Assess Party Behavior

Find out everything about the litigation posture of your opposing party. See which law firms have represented them. Determine their strategic approach. Will they try to settle early, or should you expect them to go to trial? Review all other cases against them that are similar to yours. Get instant access to all the dockets and documents that are relevant to your case.

"The partnership with Lex Machina is a natural step in our continued direction of leveraging data-driven insights in order to better transform complex legal issues into viable business solutions." – Ogletree Deakins
