Lex Machina

The Winning Edge

Legal Analytics provides data-driven insights and trends in product liability case timing, resolutions, damages, remedies, and findings. Our comprehensive case set includes cases in which a party seeks compensation for injury caused by a defect in a product.

Lex Machina helps you answer questions such as:

- Which law firms have the most experience with medical device/pharmaceutical cases?

- Which judges have heard MDL Master cases?

- What is the largest damages award made in the Middle District of Florida since 2009?

- How has a judge ruled on the admissibility of expert witnesses?

- How many times has a firm succeeded in product liability subrogation cases?

- How often – and in which specific cases – has a finding of breach of warranty been made in the Eastern District of Louisiana?

- Has a particular expert witness ever been excluded or limited on a Daubert challenge?

Unique Litigation Data

Case Tags – Our data includes the product classification tags Aircraft, Asbestos, Medical Device/Pharmaceutical and Vehicle, as well as the Subrogation case tag, to help you create your specific product liability case list.
