

Legal Analytics® for Class Action Litigation

Lex Machina's award-winning Legal Analytics platform allows outside counsel and in-house attorneys to research and anticipate the behavior of courts, judges, lawyers, law firms, and parties. Over three quarters of Am Law 100 firms and many of the largest global corporations use Legal Analytics to supplement traditional legal research with previously unavailable strategic insights that give them a winning edge. Now, Legal Analytics is available for all class action litigation filed in federal courts ("Class Action Analytics").

Class Action Analytics pertain to cases in which a plaintiff alleges a claim on behalf of a group or class of individuals pleaded as Rule 23 class actions.

This is a crucial set of cases that involve high-profile cases with high numbers of parties and high amounts of damages. Class Action Analytics includes damages analytics totaling over $178,000,000,000 in approved class action settlement damages, and complete Legal Analytics for each class action settlement including class size, attorneys' fees, class representative awards, and non-monetary relief. It is an exciting area of litigation in which understanding and transparency are strategically advantageous.

The Winning Edge

Lex Machina's Legal Analytics for class action litigation provides valuable data-driven insights and trends in case timing, resolutions, damages, and findings. We help you answer questions such as:

- What are the top three most active districts by number of class action cases filed?
- How often have claimants prevailed at trial in class action cases filed in the last five years?
- How many class action cases were filed before Judge Christina Snyder from the Central District of California in 2022, and what was the breakdown of class sizes in those cases?
- Which law firm has the most experience representing defendants in class action cases filed in the Eastern District of New York in the last five years? Who was the most active defendant during that time?
- What is the median time to class action settlement for class action cases terminated in the Northern District of California?
- What was the total amount of class action damages awarded by Judge Lorna Schofield from the Southern District of New York over the last five years?
- How many class action cases were denied class certification on the basis of a finding of No 23(b)(3) Predominance and Superiority in the Northern District of Illinois?

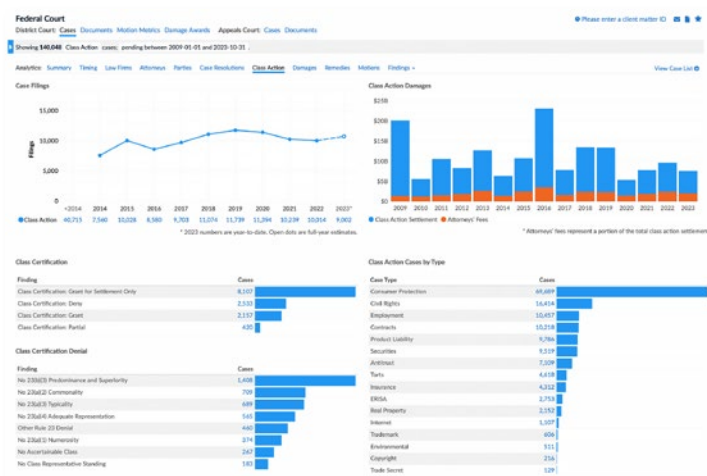

Unique Litigation Data

Lex Machina allows users to filter by the following information in order to find the most relevant cases:

Damages – Class Action Settlement, Class Action Attorney Fees, Class Representative Award, Non-Monetary Relief

Findings – Class Certification: Grant, Class Certification: Deny, Class Certification: Grant for Settlement Purposes Only, Class Certification: Partial, No Class Representative Standing, No Ascertainable Class, No 23(a)(1) Numerosity, No 23(a)(2) Commonality, No 23(a)(3) Typicality, No 23(a)(4) Adequate Representation, No 23(b)(3) Predominance and Superiority, Other Rule 23 Denial

Unique Features

Understand the complete picture for your class action case strategy with these features:

- Review class action data and trends based on estimated class size, class certification status, and settlement awards
- Gain access to data and details on approved settlement damages including approved attorney fees and class representative awards
- Use timing data on class certification and settlement to budget and manage client expectations effectively and efficiently
- Obtain data-driven insights regarding the key players in class action litigation (from parties to counsel to judges) through our enhanced entity data
- Research class action cases by focusing on specific law firms, lawyers, or parties